Essay/Personal Statement Requirements

On a separate sheet, write at least a 300-word essay on the effects and aftermath of September 11th on today's society, what you plan to achieve through college that can possibly impact the community and/or the world, and why you should receive a Memorial Scholarship. Be sure to write your name and Student ID number on each page.

Please be concise. You may also include any other information that you feel is pertinent to your application and you may attach only two additional pages. Finally, the style and content of your personal statement will be considered when the ASC Scholarship Committee reviews your application. Be sure to include a copy of your College acceptance letter along with your application page to your essay.
